Berlin Night Express is the new single by LOWE, taken from the Billboard-recommended album Kino International. The song features Isabelle Erkendal from West End Girls on sensual backing vocals (as well as on the sleeve). After extensive touring, Top 10 singles, TV-shows in front of millions of viewers and a lot of blood, sweat and tears, the hit single "Berlin Night Express" is out now!

On "Berlin Night Express," LOWE's "pop noir," a dandy mix between melancholic melodies and electronic chords connects you to neon lights, boulevards and late nights at Bahnhof Zoo. A sound that would make artists like David Bowie, Muse and The Killers jealous. The black and white video is a fascinating backlit blend of film noir, Weimar and Bauhaus-culture which takes us back to the nightlife of Berlin in 1927.

On October 9, LOWE will start their Kino Express Tour which will take them across Europe to Kaliningrad, London, Kiev, Sofia, Istanbul, Bukarest and Transylvania (!) amongst other.
